The Spanish Riding School in Vienna is the only institution in the world, which has practiced for over 430 years and continues to cultivate classical equitation in the Renaissance tradition of the haute école. Each rider at the SRS is assigned four to six stallions, which he trains and perfects in the maneuvers of the haute école. The rider and the horse remain together, forming a 'life-long team'. Riders are also involved in training of Student Riders, instructing them in the art of classical equitation.

Marius is very patient and kind, but exacting with regard to correct work being done. He does well with both amateurs and professionals; Training Level up to Grand Prix. He is very active during the lesson and gives continual feedback and instruction.
